We May Have to Attack Santiago After All.

TORAL WANTS TOO MUCH

He Would Have His Army Retain Its Arms.

SHAFTER REFUSES THE DEMAND.

Terms or the Attack Will Be Resumed-Suberdinate Officers May Be the Cause of the Hitch.

WASHINGTON, July 16.-An assault spon Santiago may yet be necessary to secure the fall of that city. Terms of surrender have not yet been fully agreed upon. At 1 o'clock this morning, as Secretary Alger was leaving the White House in company with Secretary Bliss and Postmaster General Smith, ne said he was authorized by the presilent to thus state the situation:

"The Spanish general does not want to lay down his arms. He desires to carry them back to Spain with the croops. This proposition has been positively and emphatically refused. General Toral must surrender on our own terms. Otherwise the city will be attacked from land and sea and occupied by American troops." Thus it appears that the question of allowing the Spanish troops to take their arms back to Spain is the one point standing between a peaceable or forcible taking of Santiago. One of the members of the cabinet expressed the. opinion that when General Toral received our ultimatum he would yield. another expressed doubt and suggested that General Toral's negotiations for peace were solely for the purpose of deay to enable him to strengthen his porition by re-enforcements from other points in the Santiago district.

"As diplomatists," this cabinet officer remarked, "the Spaniards can beat us, and it looks a little as if General Toral, realizing his inability to cope with General Shafter on the field of battle, had resorted to trickery in the hope of finding some escape from the difficult position in which he is placed."

The force in the city, according to General Shafter's telegram yesterday afternoon, is about 12,000, while the total force within the limits described in the terms of surrender is stated on the same authority to be not less than 25,-100. It appears from this that the number of troops in the described territory butside of Santiago is greater than the aumber in the city.

It is known positively by officials of the war department that the Spanish subordinate commanders in the eastern end of Cuba have raised a vigorous objection to the surrender of their troops to the United States.

Although General Toral is commander in chief of their forces, they hold that he has no right to surrender their croops without the distinct authority of the Madrid government. They have not been engaged with the enemy near the scene of action where General Toral was defeated, and they strongly object to having their troops surrendered to the American commander without having had a chance to show any resistance to the invasion of their territory. Late last night the following bulletin was posted at the war department:

Headquarters, Santiago, via Playa del Este, July 15.

Adjutant General, Washington: Sent you several telegrams yesterlay, as did General Miles, in regard to the surrender. General Toral agreed vesterday positively to surrender all the forces under his command in eastern Suba upon a distinct understanding that they were to be sent to Spain by the United States: that this surrender was authorized by General Bianco and that its submission tomorrow was merely formal. The commissioners to arange details were appointed-Wheeler, Lawton and Miley on the part of the United States. Points were immediately raised by Spanish commissioners. The discussion lasted until 10 o'clock ast night. My commissioners think the matter will be settled today and meet at 9:30 o'clock this morning. There are shout 12,000 troops in the city and about as many more in the surrounding district. Twenty-five thousand in all will oe transported. General Miles was present and said the surrender was as ab solute and complete as possible. It cannot be possible that there will be failure in completing arrangements. Water tamine in city imminent. Have supply cut. This was told Lieutenant Miley by English commissioner. Will wire frequently when negotiations are pro-SHAFTER.

DETAILS OF THE SURRENDER.

The Negetlations Between Generals Toral and Shafter,

BEFORE SANTIAGO DE CUBA, July 15, via Kingston, Jamaica, July 16. -General Toral must have realized he was trapped and that to hold out longer must mean a useless sacrifice of his men, but he made one last effort to gain more time yesterday morning. While nominally yielding to the terms General Shafter proposed, before $ o'clock he sent a communication to General Shafter, inclosing a telegram from Captain General Blanco, explaining that the surrender of such an important position as Santiago and the abandonment of eastern Cubs would require the direct sanction of the Madrid government and requesting more time to hear from Madrid. At the same time Captain General Blanco authorised General Toral, if it were agreeable. to the American general, to appoint commissioners on each side to arrange the terms of the capitulation of the forces under his command on the condition of their parole and transportation to Spain pending the sanction of Madrid. He also communicated the names of the commissioners he had selected-namely, Mr. Robert Mason, the British vice consul; General Toral's chief of staff, Colonel Fontaine, and General Escarajao.

This communication was so ambiguous that it might all be upset by the refusal of Madrid to sanction the terms agreed to by the commissioners, and General Shafter resolved to have all the ambiguity removed before proceeding further. At 11 o'clock he mounted his sorse, and, together with General Miles and the staffs, he rode to the front. At General Wheeler's headquarters General Shafter, General Miles, Colonel Maus and an interpreter left their retinue and passed on over our trenches, with a flag of truce, to the mango tree under which the interview was held yesterday. They were soon joined by General Toral, his chief of staff and the two other commissioners appointed by him.

General Miles took no part in the negotiations. He has been careful since his arrival here not to assume the direction of affairs or to detract in the least from the glory of General Shafter's achievements.

General Shafter insisted at the outset that the commissioners to be appointed should have paramount authority to make and conclude the terms of surrenier, in accordance with the general confitions of our demands.

After parleying, General Toral acceded to this, explaining that since his last communication he had received direct authority from Captain General Blanco to do so. This being the main point, the interview was soon concluded. Before parting General Shafter complimented General Toral highly upon the skill and gallantry of his resistance. Upon the return to General Wheeler's headquarters the news of our complete victory was communicated to General Lawton and to General Kent and to the brigade commanders. A scene of general rejoicing followed.

General Shafter held a regular leves before he dismounted and was congratulated and complimented by all. He immediately appointed General Wheeler, General Lawton and Captain Miley to be commissioners on his behalf to treat with those appointed by General Toral, He then issued orders to permit our troops to retire from the trenches, but absolutely forbidding any soldier or civilian from going into the Spanish lines.

The refugees are to be permitted to return to their homes, but neither our troops nor the Cuban auxiliaries are to be permitted to enter the city at present.

The order as to the Cubans is very specific. They have shown a disposition to loot anything and everything. But they are not to have the privilege of glutting their appetites for plunder in Santiago.

A guard is to be maintained about the city, and the camps of our soldiers are to be removed just to the front or to the rear of our lines, as in individual of the camp sites will undoubtedly improve the health of the troops.

The whole purpose of the American commander now is to protect the health of the army, especially from the dreaded contagion.

It is claimed there is no fever in Santiago, but the city is full of filth and stench, and if our men are allowed to go in it will undoubtedly become a pest The boys in the trenches were ignorant of the outcome of the negotiations until after a heavy luncheon of coffee, hardtack and corned beef.

Then General Shafter appointed Colonel Astor and Captain McKittrick to convey the welcome tidings along the lines. Some of the officers favor celebrating the victory with bands and a noisy demonstration, but General Shafter vetoed the proposition. He said there was no occasion to humiliate the enemy, who had fought bravely. Not even cheering was to be permitted, but before Colonel Astor and Captain Mc-Kittrick could warn the soldiers the latter broke out into wild hurrahs. Some danced about, threw their hats into the air, hugged each other and congratulated themselves upon the prospert of getting out of Cuba in a few days.

General Shafter instructed the commissioners that the inside harbor entrance be immediately opened to allow Clara Barton of the Red Cross society and the supply ships to enter and that the railroad from Siboney be opened for a similar purpose. We are to supply the Spanish prisoners with food pending their concentration and embarkation. General Toral requested this, saying that there was very little food in Santiago. It is probable that the Spanish steamers in the harbor will be used in part for the transportation of the surrendered soldiers to Spain. The Spanish troops abandoned the intrenchments early this afternoon and went into the Our commissioners, accompanied by an interpreter, entered the Spanish lines shortly after 2 o'clock and had not returned when the correspondent left with this dispatch. General Miles and his staff arrived at Siboney from the front this evening and went aboard the Concha. On the wharf General Miles said.

"Santlago has surrendered on our terms after vainly trying for a long time to get better ones. The result is highly gratifying. The Spanish prisoners will be transported to Spain by us. The surrender carries with it not only the city of Santiago, but the entire Santiago military district, being the eastern portion of Cuba, west to a line drawn from Asseraderos on the south coast to Sagus on the north coast. Mansanillo and Holguin are not included.

"The possession of the surrendered district will be yielded at once, and a SPANISH OFFICIALS RETICENT.

Have Nothing to Say About Toral's Surrender-Disappointment In Madrid.

LONDON, July 16 .- The Madrid correspondent of The Times says: "The news of the capitulation of Santiago was received too late for comment by the morning papers. It causes disappointment, because it was hoped that although General Toral was in a desperate condition, the spread of yellow fever might in a few days have compelled the Americans to raise the siege and retire. Official information regarding the conditions of surrender is anxlously awaited. "The government's unusual reticence concerning the long dispatches received from Captain General Blanco causes anxiety. The correspondent notes as a significant fact that a certain Cuban magnate, who had always declared that he would remain in Cuba so long as he had hope of the island being preserved to Spain, has left Havana for some una neutral ship to take him to Europe." More Prizes Captured.

KEY WEST, July 16 .- Three prizes of war were brought here yesterday, but none was of any great consequence, and the captures were effected with only ordinary incident. The English built steamer Grenew Castle, which for several years plied on the Cuban coast under the Spanish flag, but on June & last returned to her British registry. was taken by the Dixle off Cape Cruz last Thursday. She was bound from Kingston, Jamaica, for Manzanillo with a large cargo of food supplies. The crew of the Grenew Castle consisted of six Spaniards and four Jamaica negroes.

The day before this capture the Dixie took also two schooners, the Three Bells and the Pilgrim, both flying British flags and both bound from Montego Bay to Manzanillo with cargoes of food supplies The Three Bells was orginally a Nova Scotian boat. She is of about 125 tons and the Pilgrim of about 25 tons.

Lieutenant S. M. Blunt, with, two sailors and two marines, was put in charge of the Pilgrim to bring her to Key West, but she has not yet arrived.

The British schooner E. R. Nickerson was also among yesterday's arrivals. She was becalmed off Cape Crus on June 30, when the Hornet steamed alongside and informed her commander that the vessel was a prisoner. There was no attempt at resistance.

DUN'S REVIEW. Success of the War Loan... Wheat Dropping In Price.

Co.'s weekly review of trade says: The destruction of a Spanish fleet, Europe's quick appreciation of the feat, the wearying flags of truce at Santiage and at last the surrender, have all influenced some markets day by day. But Americans have grown and see that not many outside matters greatly influence the business which enables them to market $1,210,274,615 worth of domestic products abroad in a year, against

The new loan has proved a stupendous success, over $1,300,00,000 having been subscribed, and it is now the question of chief interest whether any banks will get enough, after personal subscriptions have been accepted, to support further circulation. Industries and business are at the naturally lowest point for the year, and therefore the records are the more impressive.

Wheat has been dropping in price under estimates of 680,000,000 to 700,000,000 bushels this year, which seem to be at least as well warranted as overconservative estimates by the same parties last year. Injury in crops is heralded; abundance in old regions gets no notice. Western receipts are moderate as yet but the Atlantic exports for the week were 1,719,759 bushels, flour included against 1,611,490 last year, and Pacific exports 521,514, against 136,763 last year, and for two weeks the exports from both coasts have been 4,884,412 bushels against 3,587,909 last year.

The volume of business still exceeds that of any previous year, for the week 17.1 per cent greater than last year and 7.2 per cent greater than in 1892. Money is coming into New York heavily in July, commercial loans are hard to find and the interior is paying its debts in advance. It is to New York a revelation, to some bankers inconvenient, of the enormous prosperity attained at the west last year.

Failures for the week have been 215 in the United States against 263 last year and in Canada 23 against 27 last year

FOR OUR SOLDIERS.

Housewives, Made by the "Dearest Women." Occupy an Important Part in the War Outfit.

Some one has computed that with 200,000 men in the field there are at least 1,000,000 of women who are directly and individually concerned in their welfare, not to mention all those besides whose interest is sympathetic and patriotic, says a writer in Harper's Bazar. Not all can join actively in the work of the great organizations which further lange enterprises, and many minor associations are formed with the purpose of devising and making little personal comforts for the soldiers to add to their kits when going away for duty or be sent to them as opportunity offers. The little housewife shown in

It is made of dark blue denim, and is ten inches long by seven wide. The pockets on the inside are of navy blue cambric. The contents of the largest of the pockets, the one across the bottom, are not such as are usually found in an orthodox housewife, consisting, as they do, of a wooden pipe and a small pouch of tobacco. This pocket is four inches and a half deep, with the ends plaited in to two inches and a half. The lower edge is set on with a trifle of fullness to give greater amplitude, the fullness being gathered at the top on a tape run into the hem. The lower end

This pocket holds a box of buttons of the self-fastening kind, that require no sewing on, a small ase of adhesive plaster, shoe laces and rolls of tape. Above it is a straight flat strip stitched down, holding a comb; the strip is 11/4 inches wide, and comes an inch short of the width of the case on the right side. The top pocket, of the same size as the second, is set on just below the upper edge. Its contents are small cards of black and white thread, pips and needles. The needles are run into a red flannel leaf at the

The Cutting of the Hair, The best authorities on the bair say that a child's hair should not be cut until it is four or five years of age. It should be kept out after this until the child is about 14. After this a little girl's hair should be allowed to grow long. It should be trimmed at the tips, however, or burned off monthly to keep it even and the hairs from splitting at the end. Do not wash the hair too often unless it is very oily. In that case wash it often to remove the excess of oil. Dry hair that is inclined to come out should be kept clean by daily use of the brush applied vigorously to the scalp. It should not be washed oftener

This is because the drafts in a moving train are always from front to rear, and when your-head is toward the engine you are better protected, while getting as much fresh air as though you were in the other position. In hot summer weather those who sleep with "head on" can with perfect safety have a screen put under the sash at the foot of the berth, and thereby enjoy a constant supply of cool, unbreathed air.

A NEW COAL ROAD.

Projected by Individual Coal Producers-May Acquire the Lehigh and Hudson.

The New York, Wyoming and Western Railroad Company, has just been incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania, to build a railroad from the Wyoming, Scranton, Wilkesbarre and Lackawanna coal fields to tidewater at or near New York.

The new enterprise is backed by independent anthracite coal operators in the Scranton region, and its main purpose, it is explained, is to secure lower coalcarrying rates from the anthracite districts to the Atlantic seaboard. Definite announcement is made that the new company has already practically secured the right of way from Scranton to tidewater, connecting at Belvidere, N. J., with the Lehigh and Hudson Railroad for trame by way of the Poughkeepsis Bridge to New England points. The cost of constructing this new line is estimated at $10,000,000. Besides President Sturgis, the following-named men are interested in the project: L. A. Watres, Thomas E. Jones, T. H. Watkins John Jermyn, Congressman William Cornell, C. D. Simpson, O. S. ATHE BRUYN NOTE CASE.

& other Decision in an Often Tried and Often Appealed Case. From the Elienville Press.

One of the cases recently decided by the Appellate Division was that of Blanshan vs. Russell et al., which is the old case brought by Widow Bruyn, of Wawar sing against Russell et al., executors of Jacob DeWitt, an old bachelor. Mrs. Bruyn claimed that DeWitt asked her to marry him, and upon promising to do so gave her a note for several thousand dollars. A number of trials were had, Mrs. Bruyn winning several of them, the principal defence being that the note was a forgery. Finally Mrs. Bruyn was defeated and shortly after died. The case was revived in the name of her administrator and taken to the Appellate Court, which has affirmed the decision of the trial term of the Supreme Court in favor of the executors.

Andrew J. Snyder, son of the mayor of Ridgewood, N. J., and Joseph Christopher, son of Ridgewood's marshal, started for Oklahoma, Wednesday night, having been persuaded to do so by s smooth taiking fellow named Charles Van Dien. They reached Port Jervis on a freight train that night and camped out near the village. The parents of the boys traced them to Port Jervis, and they were arrested Thursday and taken home Friday. Van Dien was ordered out of town. The boys were well supplied with money, and this was doubtless the secret of his interest in

THE CRISIS IN SPAIN.

Individual Rights Suspended Throughout the Country.

CADIZ AFRAID OF WATSON'S FLEET.

Carlist Askation Rapidly Growing-Government Messures to Keep Down Mebellium-Bank of South for sues Tremsury Bonds.

MADRID, July 16.-A decree of the captain general of Madrid, which has been affixed to the walls of this c.tv. says decrees suspending the constitutional guarantees throughout the kingdom having been published and a state of war existing, it is ordered that no meetings shall take place without the previous authorization of the military authorities.

It is also forbidden to publish without previous authorization any writings. engravings or designs whatever.

The decree concludes with specifying the punishment which will be meted out to those who disregard the orders issued.

Premier Sagasta declares that neither government in Cuba has intervened in the negotiations for the surrender of Santiago de Cuba. He ade. that the surrender came within the province of General Toral and under his responsibility, and the general simply announced that the garrison had capitulated. A dispatch from Cadiz says there is great excitement there owing to the expected coming of Commodore Watson's squadron. Many are leaving.

The Spanish mail steamer plying between that port and Tangier will cease to run next week. Mr. Frank C. Partridge, retiring United States consul, will remain at Gibraltar until his successor arrives. The Bank of Spain has opened subscriptions for treasury bonds. Already 23,000,000 pesetas have been taken.

The Carlist agitation is assuming proportions in many of the northern provinces which may serve as a fresh argument for action on the part of the government. The civil and military authorities, acting under the instructions of the ministers of the interior and of war, are closely watching the movements of Carlist emissaries, who are frequently flitting about the old haunts of Carlism, coming to Madrid, going to Brussels, Bayonne and Pau to report the results of their propaganda and preparations.

Special attention is being given to the Pyrenean frontier, where smugglers on both sides and the French Legitimists are lending a willing hand. The authorities are convinced that arms and war stores have been introduced and that the Carlists have been supplied with money from abroad.

The Marquis de Cerralbo, the chief lieutenant of Don Carlos, and the Carlist senators and deputies, together with the Carlist newspapers, affect, however, a patriotic indignation at the idea that they could harbor a design for rising until the war was over and until the conditions of peace furnished a pretext for justifying such action in the eyes of the nation and of the Vatican. The position of the Carlists is somewhat pecultar. The leaders have certainly thus far endeavored to keep their rural adherents and the local funtas quiet, but they are beginning to feel that these will slip away, especially as the more impatient elements find favor with the son and wife of the pretender.

Representations have been against the presence of Don Carlos in Brussels, where Don Jaime will soon join him. The Spanish consuls in the south of France have been instructed to watch the Carlists and their symmore strict surveillance on the part of the French frontier authorities. Ex-Convict Mobbed.

NEWBURG, N. Y., July 16.-Policeman George Ronk of Walden attempted to arrest three tramps in that village yesterday. One of them, an ex-convict named Harry William, shot at the officer twice, his shield, which the bullets struck, saving his life. Citizens pursued Williams with shotguns and clubs. He was captured by being knocked down with a stone. Williams was then ducked in the creek and badly pommeled by the crowd before the jail was reached.

Colonel Worth of the Thirteenth United States infantry, but who is now a brigadier general, arrived today at his quarters on Governors island, suffering from two wounds in the right breast and a compound fracture of the right arm. which were caused by four Spanish bullets by which he was struck in the now famous capture by the United States forces of the Spanish blockhouse on San Juan hill in Cuba on the 2d of July last.

The general, who was severely wounded, was greatly exhausted by his journey from Cuba, and at once retired. His surgeons will not allow him to be seen or spoken to by any but members of his family for some days. The general's wounded arm is perfectly helpless, and the wounds in his breast, although quite extensive and very sore, are not sufficiently deep to be considered dangerous. By remaining perfectly quiet for a short time the wounded officer will avoid any complications and will gradually recover.

Brigadier General H. G. Otle Will Command the Next Expeditión, to Louve Júly 20.

FRANCISCO, July 16.-The BAN fourth Manila expedition has sailed. Shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afterneen Major General Otis from his flagship, the City of Pueblo, signaled the transport Peru to get under way. The signals were understood by the anxious watchers on shore and by those who had surrounded the two vessels in small boats and were received with great cheering.

companies of the Fourteenth United States infantry, recruits of the First and Second battalions of the Eighteenth and Twenty-third regiments, enlisted men of the First North Dakota, First Wyoming and First Idaho, medical officers and members of the hospital corps -a total of 843 men.

The troops on the Peru consist of a squadron of the Fourth United States cavalry, light batteries of the Sixth United States artillery, a detachment of the Third United States artillery, a detachment of the signal corps under Cap tain Russell, a detachment of volun-teers, medical officers and members of the hospital corps—about 920 men.

The last orders of General Otis before leaving were that the remaining transports should sail as soon as possible, irrespective of fleets or other expected vessels. Each one, he said, should go by itself, if necessary. The Pennsylvania and City of Rio Janeiro are both nearly ready and will probably be prepared to sail by next Thursday. The loading of the commissary stores on these two vessels has begun.

Brigadier General H. G. Otis has final. ly been selected to command the fifth expedition to Manila. His fleet will consist of the steamers Rio Janeiro, St Paul and Pennsylvania. The war department has instructed General Otis to relieve the First Utah cavalry from the expected duty in the Philippines and to transfer the troop to the department of Major General Merriam.

London Press Comment.

LONDON, July 16.—The weekly pa pers express great satisfaction over the fall of Santiago de Cuba. The Speaker thinks the event presages the end of the war, but describes it as "a stroke of good fortune which the Americans had no right to expect." It adds: "The terms of surrender are not dishonorable. They reflect credit upon both sides."

The Saturday Review explains its change of attitude in favor of America and alleges that its original antagonism was prompted by America's "aggressive humor." while its present attitude is a "somewhat tardy but ungrudging admission of American courage and humanity." The paper proceeds in terms of high praise of the United States along the lines of its article a week

The Porto Rico Campaign.

WASHINGTON, July 16.-Telegrams which have passed between the military authorities here and those in Cuba and the agents of the war department at other places indicate that preparations for the Porto Rican expedition are being given earnest attention. The officials, however, decline to discuss the arrangements in progress or say from what port or ports the troops are to embark. The transports available for carrying the men are scatteed in half a dozen places, and no order has yet been given to concentrate them at any one

PARIS, July 16 .- The Budapest correspondent of The Libre Parole announces the death of Clara L. Ward, the divorced wife of Prince Joseph of Chimay and Caraman.

The late Clara Ward was the daugh-

Rotelli giving the nuptial benediction. In November of 1896 it was announced that the princess had eloped with a Hungarian tzigano (gypsy musician), a married man, named Janos Rigo, whom she had met in Paris, where he had turned up about five years before and where his fiddling had attracted the attention of the benevelent Russian Prince Jablon-

The administration is doing a very sensible thing in leaving American interests in the Philippines entirely in the hands of Admiral Dewey. He is levelheaded, alert and thoroughly conversant with the whole situation, and may be depended upon to do nothing rashly, and to make no mistakes. Any attempt to direct affairs from Washington would involve the risk of muddling matters, and might easily precipitate a crisis with Germany, whose attitude is distinctly irritating, even if it cannot be called unfriendly.

Gov. Black with his force bill has accomplished one result that was not in his calculations. He has thoroughly and heartily united the Democratic party. All minor differences will be forgotten. and all Democrats will join hands in ridding the State of an administration that scruples at nothing to perpetuate itself in power. And in this patriotic duty legislative and executive power are shamelessly prostituted to partisan

Gen. Blanco, safe for the time being in Havana, lifted up his voice for prolonging the war, yesterday, and in impotent wrath lamented that he was no longer young so that he might devote his whole life to fighting the United States, which he more than once declared have "calumniated and humiliated" his country. We don't know where the calumniation of Spain comes in, but as for the humiliation there has been a good deal of that within the past few months. and there will be a good deal more of it in the next few weeks if she doesn't own up that she has had enough and ask us to let up.

The New York Herald, which has no love for the Democratic organization in New York city, says that there has never been a more glaring instance of the "tyranny of the majority" then is furnished by the Republicans of the legislature hu "jamming through" Gov. Black's torce bill. Concerning this

New York, July 16 .- A special to the Journal says the terms of surrender of Santiago are that the 20,000 refugees at Caney and Siboney are to be turned into the city. An American infantry patrol is to be posted on roads surrounding the city. Our hospital corps is to give attention to the sick and wounded among the Spanish soldiers. All Spanish troops in the province, except Gen. Luce's 10,000 at Holguin, are to come to the city to surrender.

The guns and the defenses of the city are to be turned over to the Americans in good condition. The Americans are to have full use of the Juragua Raffroad, which belongs to the Spanish Government. All Spaniards surrendered are to be convoyed home by American transports with the least possible delay, and they are to be permitted to take all portable church property with them. panish Commissioners Demanding Impossibilities in Connection With Santiago's Surrender.

Siboney, July 15, via Playa del Este, July 16 —The commissioners to arrange the details of the surrender of the Spanish forces are still hard at work, and probably their labors will not be completed before to-morrow. Though the understanding was that no concessions were to be granted, with the exception of allowing officers to retain their side arms, the Spanish commission has been dispute him, and at once sent to the Senate the ing and raising many objections to the | nomination of John McCullogh as State proposed arrangements. The Spanish officers wish to have their men march provisions. The Senate confirmed the out of the trenches with their arms, | nomination by a party vote. which they also insist are to be boxed up and shipped to Spain with the prisoners. but this, of course, has been refused. There is also much argument over the details of surrender. The total number of Spanish troops involved in the surrender will run close to 25,000, of whom about 12,000 are behind the intrenchments of Santiago. The others are stationed at Segua de Tanamo, Gustanamo, Baracoa and other seaports and fortified towns.

A LOST OR STOLEN CHILD.

The Four-Year-Old Saughter of Scottle Conking Missing from Sta Some at Cornerd-Many Neighbors Scarching the the Little Suc.

Thursday afternoon, George Conkling. who lives at the old Walkill lend mine on the Shawangunk Mountains buck of Guymard, went with his wife and two oldest children to pick buckleberries, and left their three youngest children at home, the oldest of the three being a boy about eleven years of age.

The Gasette says that when the berry pickers returned at might the little daughter, a very pretty four-year-old child. was missing. The boy, who was left in charge of the bome, said that helast saw her sleeping under a tree, but did not know where she had gone. She was barefooted and bareheaded.

The frightened parents searched all about the premises and finding no trace of the child, borrowed lanterns of Erie Operator Edward Nolan, at Q W tower, and thoroughly but vainly searched the woods. The child could not have strayed far away, and may have been asleep somewhere in the thick underbrush.

A tramp passed the place at about 5 o'clock, and he may have carried away the child. The distracted family and their neighbors are to-day seurching the woods such by inch in quest of the child.

The search has been continued steadily by many of the neighbors, and up to noon to-day no trace of the child had been found.

Grorge Conkling, the father of the missing child, came to this city, this afternoon, to consult with the authorities as to whether any tramps had been seen having with them a child answering the description of the little one. The police could give him no information, but would aid him in his search.

Mr. Conkling said that he learned, yesterday, that a band of gypsies was seen about a mile from his home, Thursday, but nothing has been seen or heard of them since.

REPAIRING THE GOSHEN LINE.

The Traction Company Spending Buch Money on its Readbed-A Sitch With the Erie.

The Traction Company, which is spending all the nickels it is taking in nowadays in repairs to the roadbed, met with an obstacle at Goshen, Friday.

Contractor Fox, of New York, who is doing the work, was putting in tiling along the bank at the Erie's cross-over bridge, just west of Goshen. Rains have washed the bank so badly there that it needed strengthening. To this end a foundation of ties taken out in the repairs to the roadbed was being built up to support the bank, when two Erie detectives appeared and stopped the work.

Application will now be made to the Erie company's office, and as the improvement and saleguard will be mutual, consent to progress will doubtless be given.

The roadbed is now in better shape than it has been in a long time. Next winter it is intended to bring cars to this city from the New Paltz road for use on the Goshen line. They are closed cars, containing ladies', smoking, baggage and toilet compartmente.

A Young Reader of War Bulletins.

One of the interesting sights in front of the Argus office, Friday, was a little girl, not more than seven or eight years of age, who was reading the war bulletius. Work Given Up Because Dyspepsia Had Broken Down His Health -- How the Disease Was Completely Cured.

"I was troubled with dyspepsis for twelve years, and at last my health became so much run down I was obliged to give up work. I took medicines but with very little improvement. I kept losing strength and flesh and fell off in weight from 155 to 116 pounds. After this I became so I could do very light work, but later I was seized with terrible pains in my back in the region of my kidneys. I also had vomiting spells after eating. I then gave up all other medicines and began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. After using three bottles I could do a fair day's work and I continued taking the medicine until I was cured. I now weigh 156 pounds and am well most of the time. I still take Hood's Sarsaparilla whenever I need a tonic and blood purifier and it always helps me." J. B. Swinger's Discovery.

WINGER went forth in the evening To ride in an open car. He had no destination in mind. There were summer gardens to the north, with bands playing under the trees. The season had just begun, and Swinger told himself that he would not visit a garden until there came a warmer evening.

He walked until he came to the State street bridge, and then he looked along State street south from the river-a broad and straight thoroughfare, twinkling with electric lights. The whole way ahead of him was in a soft glare from the myriad lights which clustered in the show windows or were studged against the buildings. Through this glare the cars were creeping, forward and back and across. The sidewalks, even at this hour, swarmed with the uneasy multitude.

Far above him the roof garden showed as an angular constellation of stars. Swinger looked up and could see the tiny figures of men and women along the railing. The roof garden provided entertainment to his liking sometimes, but on this evening he felt that a vaudeville show would be a tiresome

Presently he came to a corner from which a trolley car was about to start. There were several inviting seats, and the car would take him far out in Ogden avenue, to the half-rural suburb of Lawndale. It occurred to him that Lawndale would have no charms for him, so be did not take the car.

He found that he had turned from State street and was going toward Wabash avenue. A cable train bound for Cottage Grove avenue met him at the corner and he climbed aboard. Since he was out merely to kill time and get the fresh air why not a South side car? The South side was one of the great divisions of the city, and well deserving of an occasional visit. He lounged back in his seat and the fresh breeze cooled and chilled him until he had to button his coat.

Clickety-clack, clickety-clack, went the rattling wheels, and Swinger, with his eyes half closed and his imagination keeping time with the swift beat on the rails, did not know when the car passed Twelfth street or when it bumped across the rails at Sixteenth street or swung in a bold whip-cracker fashion around the corner at Twentysecond street. He was having a long and confidential talk with the paragon of young women when the conductor touched him on the shoulder and

Why not a transfer, since it cost nothing, and Swinger was out for an indefinite ride? He named a cross street along which, to his positive knowledge. there was an electric line. A few moments later he jumped off at the corner

He might have alighted at some other corner. It was by mere accident that he chose the particular line which would take him within three blocks of the Hadley house. As the car approached the street Swinger began to ask himself if it would not be advisable, inasmuch as he chanced to be in that neighborhood, to walk down to the house and meet Jim Hadley. Besides, he had a standing invitation to call at the house, and although this would not be a "call," still he felt that he would welcome if he should drop in, and although he was not positive he would see her he decided that if she happened to be at home he might possibly explain why he had sent the flowers that morning, providing he had not made a sufficient explanation in the note which

Now, as we all remember, Swinger had not the slightest intention of going to the Hadley home when he started out just before dusk, and you may be assured that he was surprised, but not entirely displeased, to find that the car lines had conspired to land him at this one street rather than at any other of the 3,500 streets in Chicago.

street, with a sweet-smelling grass plat and clumps of shrubbery in front of it. Swinger dimly saw several figures on the open veranua, and he heard the murmur of voices. Would it be advisable for him to call at such a time? He was in extreme doubt, and while hesitating be walked past the gate. Then it was too late for him to turn back, so he kept on walking, while he upbraided himself for an idiot and wondered if anyone on the veranda had seen him and recognized him.

and debated as to whether or not he should return. If he were seen to approach the house from the south she would ask him how it happened that he came from that direction, and he would not be able to explain. He resolved to go to the house, merely to vindicate his courage; so he went across the street and then north and came back determinedly. He slammed the gate behind him and advanced boldly toward the veranda. Some one who had been sitting on the steps arose and waited It was she, but she did not recognize him.

Hadiey. Mr. Hadiey welcomed him. rather heartily, and Mrs. Hadiey, whom Swinger had already learned to admire as a remarkably elever and sociable matron, invited him to find a piece on the rug.

"I just happened to be in this part of town, and I thought I would drop in and see if Jim was here," be said.

Of course Jim was not there, and they told him to remain anyway, so he sat on the top step and she sat two steps below him, and Swinger talked with Mr. and Mrs. Hadley about the weather and the war with Spain and the reopening of the bicycle season, while she hummed little tunes and occasionally looked up at him, at which times he felt his pulses bound.

Swinger, like many another diffident man, could talk freely and at his case with those who were decidedly his elders or who followed the lines of everyday business talk, and so he managed famously with Mr. and Mrs. Hadley. He did not know that ten o'clock had passed. Mr. Hadley announced that he would go in and read for awhile. Mrs. Hadley followed him. Swinger arose to depart.

"Oh, no; not yet," she said, and Swinger, shifting his hat from one hand to the other, said nothing, but re-

"It's such a lovely night," she continued. "I'd like to go out walking."

"We-we might," said Swinger. "Really, I want to go. I've been in the house all day. Come in until I get my hat." Thank you, I'll-"

"No: I have a particular reason for wanting you to come in."

Swinger followed her into the house. and then she turned on him and said. mischievously: "I wanted to see your spring suit. It's awfully swell. Oh, the flowers! Who gave them to you?"

"It was the florist-really," with a boyish simplicity.

"I have some flowers, too," she said, and she pointed at the roses in the vase. Then she came up close to him to chirk up the flowers in his button-hole, and she said to him, as she looked straight in his eye: "It was simply lovely of you

Swinger blushed and failed of speech, as he had at their first meeting. She was so near him that he caught some subtle fragrance from her hair and tingled with a sudden and an overwhelming surprise that he should have been selected from among mortals for such a marvelous experience as this.

He had confused impressions of secing her put on her hat and of the departure from the house, with her hand on his arm. He shook himself and grasped his walking-stick, determined to think of something, but in all the range of speech there was nothing to fit the moment. They walked silently under the trees and he became frightened at his inability to talk. But she had something to say to him.

"I was-a little provoked at you this evening," she began.

"Why? What did I do?" he asked, with actual alarm.

"Why, you said you came to see Jim. I thought at first you had come to see me. Do you know, Mr. Swinger, this is the first time you've been out here when we didn't have to send for you? And to think that you came to see Jim!"

Swinger did not detect the coquetry of her speech. He thought only of his bad manners and his natural ability for doing the unfortunate thing on every occasion.

"We'l. I'd rather-see you than Jim," he said, and then he realized that this was an impertinent declaration instead of a graceful excuse. Fortunately she was not offended.

"Well, that's nice of you to say that. You ought to like me better than you do Jim, for he used to say the most dreadful things about you. He said ou hated girls and never went out anywhere, and wouldn't dance, and all that. I know it wasn't so; or at least it isn't so now, is it?' "Well, the fact is that I hadn't-you know, there was a long time there I didn't go around at all until I met you -or anyway until you invited me out here that time." "Oh, I don't believe it. I just wondered when I received those tlowers this morning if the others were as beautiful as mine."

"What others?" "Oh, innocent!"

"Oh, Miss Hadley, for a fact, I baven't sent flowers to any girl in years, and that was-" he stopped suddenly, for his earnestness had carried him beyond bounds again. But the adorable creature was as forbearing as she was innocent. It seemed to him that she put an added pressure on his arm as she

"Well, whether that's true or not, the ones you sent me were the most beautiful things I ever saw in my life, and I can't tell you how much I prize them. And if I were sure that you had never seut such flowers to any other girl. I'd

She looked up at him, and Swinger again lost the power of speech and all the stars that were out seemed to whirl like pinwheels.

They walked homeward again and talked of many things not at all important. Swinger had made a discovery. Do not be surprised to hear of it. He knew that he was in love.

WON IN THE SEVENTH INNING.

The Asylums' Pitcher Mercilessly But ted by the Middletown Athletics.

the Asylum team, Friday afternoon, on the Hospital grounds, by the score of 23 to 11. The game was interesting and exciting up to the end of the sixth inning, the score being 9 and 7 in favor of the Asylums. In the seventh the Athletic glub knocked Shafer out of the box, scoring 16 runs. Butts relieved him, and no more runs were scored by the downtowners after this inning.

An Tuconscious Imitator of Rec.or EVADS.

Rev. Dr. Savage, of the Union Presbyterian Church, Newburgh, bubbles over with the same patriotic enthusiasm which found expression in the same way as that of our own Rector Evans. When he received the news of the surrender of Santiago he hurried to his church, pulled Sufferers From Kidney Disease off his cont and began ringing the bell, and kept if up until the sexton came and relieved him at the rope.

Farmers Weil Along With Their sum-

With the close of to-day the great body of the hay crop of this county will be in barn or in stack. The yield is large and the quality unusually good, no damaging rains having intervened in the process of curing. The rye and wheat crops have been harvested in fine condition, and here, too, the season's results are most gratilying.

No Forty Days of Rain,

Friday was St. Swithm's day and no rain fell. In fact, there was scarcely a cloud in the sky, and we may therefore hope that we will be spared the forty days of rain which we have been led to expect will follow a rainfall on St. Swithin's day. But all the same, a soaking rain would be very welcome just about now.

Arliagton Ambler has on exhibition in the window of his jewelry store an old English bull's eye watch which has the - eremony which united in marriage date 1776 engraved upon it. Mr. Ambler says that the watch is an old timer. probably much older than the date which it bears would indicate, and that it is highly prized in the family of the gentleman to whom it belongs.

AN OPEN AIR DANCE.

Given by Miss Mattie Muise at Meaner-

the executor of the estate of the late Warren Delano, of Balmville, this county, came to Port Jervis, Tuesday, and paid an inheritance tax of $1,200 to Surrogate Howell. This is 1 per cent. on $1,200,000, the value of the estate as estimated by the appraisers, which the executor claims is more than its real value. An appeal from the report of the appraisers will be made.

IS IT TRUE?

From the Albany Argus.

nent Republican politician, very close to Governor Black, has said:

I guess the Governor's election bill will do the business. If we can keep the Democratic majority in the State down to 25,000, the marked ballots ought to do the rest."

Is that the plan and plot? Are intimidation and force bill dominiliary visits to be relied on to keep down the popular majority for the Democratic candidate for Governor to a point low enough so that, by the "marked ballot" business, he can he counted out?

Little Willing Workers" Give a Fair at the Neme of Mr. Webster.

The home of Mr. D. H. Webster, on Highland avenue, where the "Little Workers" held a fair, was prettily decorated, yesterday afternoon and evening, with flags, bunting and Japanese lanterns. The embroidery booth was soon bereft of its lancy articles, and the candy booth was so well patronized that the sweetmeats rapidly disappeared. Ice cream and cake were served on the porch and lawn.

"The Little Willing Worker" are Mildred Clark, Marjorie Tompkins, Elsie Marsden, Christine Stivers, Molly Snyder,Clara Still,Maggie Hait and Florence Harding.

A THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

Meld by Rector Evans at Grace Church,

The notice of the thanksgiving service for the surrender of Santiago, at Grace Church, was so short that the attendance was not as large as it should have been. There were enough present, however, to make the church ring with "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," "America," and the chorus of "The Star Spangled Banner." The solo part of the latter song was rendered very effectively by Mrs. C. Macardell, Jr.

Rector Evans read a pealm, and offered a prayer of thanksgiving, and all joined in The Lord's Prayer.
